Sam Chaar is an Instructor at Penn State University. He is a 7th degree black belt. He teaches the art of Tae Kwon Do, a Korean Martial Art; the Japanese art of Kiokushin Karate; the art of Aiki Jujitsu; and the art of Kung Fu, Wing chun and Tai chi style. Chaar has earned silver medal at the US Open in 2007 and competed at the World Hanmadang Champion in November of 2007 representing the USA.

He was also a member of the 1988 Olympic Team in Seoul, Korea, and was the 1994 World Karate Championship Gold Medalist. Master Chaar has taught elementary and high school students through Upward Bound Programs and school districts throughout the community educational programs.

Master Chaar's Staff are certified and experienced Black Belts who trained under him personally. They have taught Martial Arts classes for all ages and levels.

Your Children will learn structure, discipline, self-dense, traditional Korean Karate, while they are having fun!

Drop off as early as 8:45 a.m. and pick up late as 12:15 p.m. for half day campers and by 5:00 pm for full-day campers. We offer four karate classes daily at 9:15 a.m. and 11:15 a.m., 2:00 pm, and 3:45 pm. There is movie time, snack time, and game / play time and prizes and karate-gymnastics for full and half day campers.

Children will learn discipline, respect for others earning belts through Karate achievements. We also train outdoors in the Park twice a week! We also have in school tournaments with medals, and out of school tournaments and more!
